Resize Information

How long does it take?

Resizing usually takes 5 to 10 working days, however this will vary depending on the ring itself and how much work is required.

How much does it cost?

Resizing is free of charge within 60 days of receiving your item and £95 thereafter. Should your ring need to be re-engraved an additional fee of £30 will be added. This fee includes the cost of delivery back to you.

Will my ring need to be re-engraved and does this cost extra?

During the resizing process, any existing engraving will be removed. Please fill out the form accordingly to request this be re-engraved. There will be an additional charge of £30 for this.

Repair Information

How long does it take?

We can usually rectify any problems within 5-10 working days but this does vary depending on the individual item and the repair work that is involved.

How much does it cost?

Providing there is no sign that the item has been damaged, almost all repair work will be free of charge (within the first 5 years after purchase). If you have damaged the ring, we will still repair it but there may be charges involved. These will be explained to you before any work is carried out and charges are minimal in most cases.

Ring & Jewellery Restoration Information

How long does it take?

Our Ring & Jewellery Restoration service takes approximately 3-5 working days.

How much does it cost?

Our restoration service is priced at £75.00 for Platinum, Yellow Gold and Rose Gold jewellery and £85.00 for White Gold jewellery - this includes a rhodium plating. There are no additional charges for delivery.

Ring Matching

How long does it take?

This service is to ensure that the details and stones in your wedding ring match up as closely as possible with your engagement ring. The timing of this varies depending on your chosen ring, so speak to a member of the team to get an accurate time frame.
